

ART BUZZ WORKSHOPS

KRISTIN M. BECK // ART BUZZ STUDIO

Hello! I'm Kristin Beck and I'd love to share my creative workshops with your art and crafting community. This is a summary of workshops I am currently offering for 2019. All of them are super easy to do and loads of fun, too. All pricing is based on a maximum of 10 students. If you are interested in hosting one of my workshops, contact me for specifics on contract, time frames, and any class requirements. Thanks for buzzing by!

2-HOUR WORKSHOP: BEGINNER EMBROIDERY

If you've ever wanted to learn embroidery, this class is for you! Embroidery is soothing, portable, and easy to learn. Plus, once you start you will find it is irresistible. Handwork with a needle and floss (embroidery thread) is a time-honored process, but this class will use contemporary patterns with a tropical flair. Each attendee will leave with knowledge of three basic stitches (split, running, and back), and a package, which includes one 4" wooden hoop, tropical pattern, and coordinating floss.

2-HOUR SESSION: $35 PP

2-HOUR WORKSHOP: COLLAGE GREETING CARDS

The beauty of collage is its inherent freedom. You don't overthink, just rip and cut and paste away. The goal for this workshop is to create abstract floral elements from paper, tissue, painted paper scraps, and other ephemera. Then add another layer with pencils, pastels, or paints. Take old work and upcycle it into new work! We will then take this new work and make greeting card covers. Artwork to share with any one! Each attendee will leave with at least five greeting cards and envelopes.

Sweet! You're on page two. I've got you thinking now. Let's get together and get your hands moving and creating.

2-HOUR WORKSHOP: BEGINNER BOOKBINDING

This workshop is great for anyone interested in exploring the art of bookbinding and paper crafts. Attendees will learn a how to use the Japanese stab binding technique to make small paper books, which make great travel or dream journals. Each attendee will leave with two to three small handmade books.

2-HOUR WORKSHOP: WATERCOLOR POSTCARDS

This workshop is perfect for those who like to take things slow. Watercolors work best with a patient painter for achieving layers of depth and color. Postcards—my favorite form of snail mail—are a fantastic way to share your new talent with friends, family, or pen pals. Plus, using 4"x6" cold-press watercolor paper (pre-printed on the back and easy to mail) makes for an achievable series of paintings by the end of the workshop. Each attendee will leave with at least five painted postcards.
